

MJP BUILDING IDEAS

Sir Hugh Casson Room For Friends

*Open to the public daily 4–6pm
Fridays until 10pm
Free admission*

Building Ideas: Sir Richard MacCormac RA and MJP Architects

Until 17 March

This exhibition is an opportunity to examine some key projects that illustrate the special position of Sir Richard MacCormac's practice MJP, within contemporary British architecture. The works in the exhibition trace the evolution of ideas that are routed in geometry, the nature of materials, and in highly specific responses to context and culture.

Above right Ruskin Archive, Lancaster University by MJP
Photograph: Peter Durant / Arcblue.com

Above Sir Richard MacCormac RA
Photograph: Alexander McIntyre

Sir Richard MacCormac RA in conversation with Jonathan Glancey Monday 15 March

Join Royal Academician Sir Richard MacCormac and architectural critic Jonathan Glancey for an intimate evening of conversation.

Sir Hugh Casson Room for Friends, Royal Academy, W1; 6.30–7.30 pm; £10/£5 reductions (includes a drink)